

#LOVETEACHING 2016

FROM TWITTER CHATS TO PHOTO BOOTHS, EDUCATORS AROUND THE WORLD SHARED THEIR LOVE OF TEACHING.

"There are so many reasons to love teaching. As teachers, we must promote the profession."

~John King, U.S. Secretary of Education

12K

TWEETS

TRENDING TOPIC:

46.2M

IMPRESSIONS

4K

PROMOTORS

#LOVETEACHING

10.8M

REACH

A GRASSROOTS EFFORT TO SHARE AND CELEBRATE ALL THERE IS TO LOVE ABOUT THE TEACHING PROFESSION

During the week of Valentine's Day, educators took to Twitter, Instagram, blogs, videos and more to highlight all there is to love about being a teacher, teaching kids, and the teaching profession. Unlike Teacher Appreciation Week, #LoveTeaching is a chance for teachers to share their appreciation for the work they get to do with kids.

TEACHING, BE MY VALENTINE?

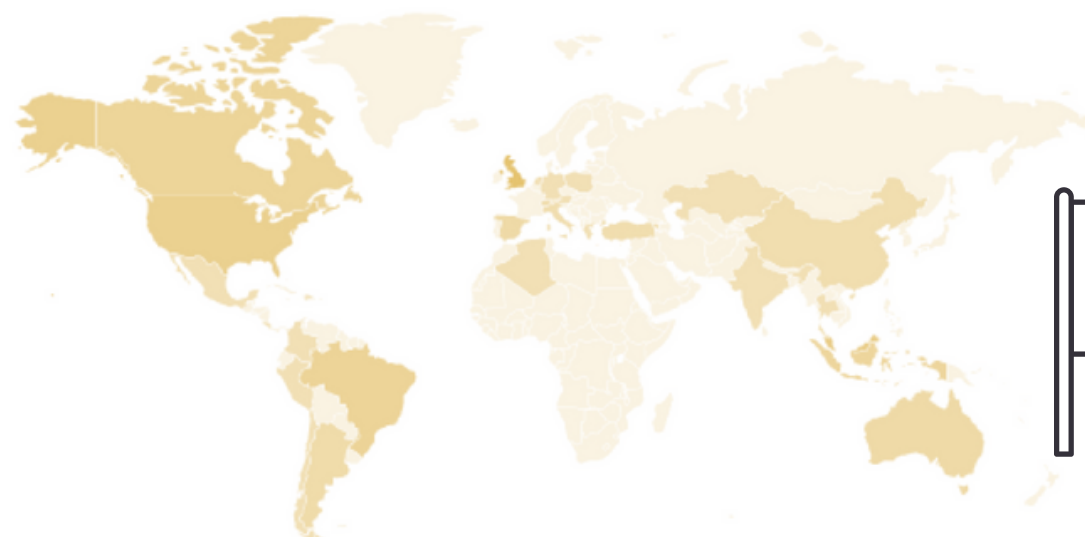

From classroom teachers & education leaders to individuals & organizations, many helped promote the sharing of thousands of memorable moments about teaching on social media & beyond. Shout out to some of the supportive folks who made it happen!

@USEDGOV
@CCSSO
@NNSTOY

@KIDSDESERVEIT
@TEACHER2TEACHER
@TEACHERTOOLKIT

@TEACHINGCHANNEL
@BAMRADIONETWORK
@TEACHTHOUGHT

LOCAL INTEREST. GLOBAL IMPACT.

Thousands of educators from over 30 countries and across 6 continents participated

SHARE THE LOVE

#LoveTeaching is a campaign that takes place February 14th - 21st each year, launched by teachers for teachers to celebrate the positives of the teaching profession. The #LoveTeaching movement has grown out of a mission to let the world know that despite the challenges facing teaching and teachers, there is still plenty to love about the work of educating students and making an impact on the lives of others.

LEARN MORE:

WeLoveTeaching.org